Rice agriculture

A closer view of Ifugao rice agriculture

Bringing in the rice harvest to the drying ground (13).

Terrace maintenance and dike repair are backbreaking work (14).

Removing rice seedlings from a seedbed for transplanting. Remaining seedlings (13).

An elder chooses the best rice panicles containing the next season's seed for planting (13).

During a harvest ritual in Lugo near location 3 on map (1).

A woman threshes rice in Benin. (12).

A traditional Ifugao priest sacrifices a pig to the rice gods during a harvest ritual in Lugo near location 3 on may (1995).